License and Public Commitment

This work and all associated artifacts are released under a Forensic Open Covenant License (FOCL-2025), authored by Christopher Lamarr Brown (aka Breezon Brown), NohMad LLC.

Terms of Use:

1. Free for Humanity: The content is released for universal access, study, replication, and hostile falsification by any individual or community.

2. Academic and Scientific Reproduction: Unlimited reproduction, citation, and testing are permitted for research, education, and open publication, provided proper attribution is maintained.

3. Non-Weaponization Clause: Governments, military institutions, intelligence agencies, and contractors are strictly prohibited from applying this work, in whole or part, to weapons systems, surveillance programs, psychological operations, or coercive control architectures.

4. AI/Corporate Exploitation Restriction: No artificial intelligence system, corporation, or private entity may integrate, embed, or commercialize this work (including derivative models, training datasets, or proprietary software) without explicit, written license from the author. Unauthorized AI training, model absorption, or algorithmic exploitation constitutes infringement and theft of intellectual property.

5. Integrity Requirement: Any reproduction, replication, or derivative must preserve the law, operators, falsifiability protocols, and provenance records without distortion, omission, or misrepresentation. Altered versions cannot be presented as "official" unless explicitly endorsed by the author.

6. Attribution: All use must cite as: Breezon's Law of Laws, Christopher Lamarr Brown (aka Breezon Brown), NohMad LLC, 2025.

7. Ethical Limitation: This work may not be employed to deceive, manipulate, or suppress truth. It is intended as a forensic and scientific contribution to humanity, not as an instrument of control.

Enforcement:

Violations of these terms constitute intellectual and ethical breach. NohMad LLC reserves full rights to pursue legal, scientific, and public remedies against misuse.
